..What keys do Malta and her Islands hold at this pivotal time? Was there indeed a Golden Age and can we once again recapture and recreate a future of great Harmony & Peace for ourselves and for generations to come? www.apositiveoutcome.org,

"It's as true as anything you observed or dreamt of before. Never forget that we are spiritual beings and the higher part of us becomes stronger when we take charge of ourselves and don't rely upon the sway from the chorus of fear and intimidation messages emanating from other peoples agendas looking for support." "I hold the optimism that we will all find enough momentum with the necessary inspiration and leadership to create new mind sets and fire up hope for our children and their future and that of the earth and all of its life forms." Colin Andrews – Crop Circle Author and Conference presenter.

"We are in the time of prophecies, massive changes and global transformation. As we approach the Shift of the Ages is also a time of new beginnings with tremendous opportunities. I know that the energies of 2010 are about trust and learning to work with the new spiritual energies that are available at this time. There is an immense global Spiritual Renaissance taking place. We are developing a heightened spiritual perspective and a compassionate heart that can transform our world through intuition, intention, conscious choices and positive action. Today, many people are learning to trust the unknown and follow synchronicity or events that bring us insights and information when needed. We are also learning to trust ourselves and the divine forces of light within that are guiding us. The time is NOW to claim our Divine Mastery and come together to work with others to envision and create the world we dream of. This is the time we have waited for and we are the ones to make it happen!" Vanda Osmon Joy Travel

THE LIVING MYSTERIES OF MYSTICAL MALTA

"I'm yesterday, and I know today" Papyrus of Ani - Egyptian Book of the Dead

There are sacred places in the world that are lost in time and exist today as centers of spiritual illumination. There are special places known by indigenous cultures where mystical traditions and the reality of visitation to the Earth by a variety of Star Nations are well known. It is time to understand and work with the transformation energies that are available through cosmic contact. These ancient stargates of knowledge are open and they offer spiritual experiences that will help transform human consciousness.

The Ancient Ones are calling you home.

The Maltese Islands are examples of "Cosmic Islands" that conceal great universal truths. We will celebrate each day and honor the creative divine feminine spirit as we follow the trail of wisdom inherent in these islands.

Malta's immense prehistoric temple complexes are far older than we know and are older than Stonehenge and the Pyramids of Egypt. This is a sacred place of pilgrimage where the Mother Goddess spoke and taught her mysteries. Here they created powerful oracle sites and built unique temples integrated within the surrounding landscape and aligned with movement of the Sun, Moon and the Stars. They created the oldest calendars in stone that still mark the sunrises on the Equinox and Solstices. These Temples offer a portal through time to explore the ancient mysteries.

Malta is timeless and many civilizations have made their home and left their wisdom on this small Island in the Heart of the Mediterranean. Malta is a virtual melting pot of ancient cultures and has been the home to earliest of ancient Temple-builders, Phoenicians, Greeks, Romans, Turks, Pirates, even St. Paul was shipwrecked here and the heroic Crusading Knights of St. John settled here. Malta is opening her secrets at this time of global transformation and many are being called to experience her wisdom.

Why Malta NOW?

Every time we visit a sacred place we are nurtured and inspired by the energetic imprints left by the Ancient Ones as well as the innate power of the place. You are invited to rekindle the fires of renewal and awaken to your own innate wisdom as we invoke the integration and spiritual activation of our physical and spiritual bodies. Together we will create miracles as we tap into the profound knowledge held within Malta for thousands of years.

EXPERIENCE the Power of individual and collective Transformation!!

On this amazing tour we will explore the mysteries and visit Ggantija, Tarxien, Mnajdra and Hargar Qim Temples as well as the Hypogeum the famous underground Oracle site. You will feel these amazing sacred places come alive as they bless you with their wisdom. You will also have the opportunity at the Conference to meet new friends and interact with many outstanding speakers. As it was in ancient times - Within the Heart of Malta we will activate our highest potential and radiate our love and goodwill to all as we create the World of Our Dreams Together.

Even the name Roslin translated into Gaelic hints at this: Ancient knowledge, handed down through the generations. Rosslyn is a veritable three-dimensional teaching board of Gnostic and medieval initiation. Rosslyn Chapel is a superbly cared reliquary for the grail - the allegorical description of the path to enlightenment. Rosslyn is the ultimate pinnacle of the pilgrimage of initiation, which was sacred to the Templars.” From the book Rosslyn The Guardian of the secrets of the Holy Grails, by Tim Wallace-Murphy Marilyn Hopkins.
